Montevideo 5th—Yesterday evening the Inspection Commission visited three convents and met with no resistance.

The German residents here will give a splendid ball on the return of Prince Charles.

The news of Mr. Viola's death has caused universal regret here. Many persons sent telegrams, expressing the deepest sympathy, to the bereaved family.

Yesterday a man and woman fell into the water as they were about to step into a boat.

Montevideo, 5th—The telegrams announcing the appearance of cholera in Marseilles have created some alarm here, and rumors are spread that the ports will be closed against all vessels from France and Spain.

The Rivadavia and Cosmos sail to-night.

Cordoba, 5th—The papers condemn the conduct of the police in arresting the electors of the recent proclamation.

Santiago, 5th—Great preparations are being made to proclaim Dr Dardo Rocha's candidature here. The ceremony of proclamation promises to be well attended.

Rumors are afloat of a Rochista having been murdered on the night of the 30th ult.

Mercedes, 5th—Messrs Acosta, auctioneers, sold yesterday 148 novillos at 13.90 m/n.

The train from Junin went off the line, yesterday, between Junin and O'Higgins. No accidents.

The amount of ash from burnt tea-leaves is a measure of the quality of the tea. The difference is small amongst good samples, but the quantity increases amongst the inferior and adulterated samples.

THE BUDGET.

Nothing can be more absurd than to argue that because the budget for this year is $42,900,063, it cannot be reduced to25, or, at most, 30 millions for next year. Such a sweeping reduction, people argue, is utterly out of the question, but the precedent is already established, and the Minister of Hacienda, if he recurs to the archives of his office, will find the proof of our statement.

We give the following figures to edify those who live on the budget, and to show Dr. Pacheco, that it is not so much new loans and new credit the country needs as a new and reformed budget, without which, no matter what money the Minister may raise, the future credit and well-being of the nation is impossible.

	Pats Gold
Budget 1872.....	29,677,051 84
	Pats Paper.
Budget 1878.....	17,637,784

Here we find a reduction in the budget of over 12 millions pats, effected by the Avellaneda Government, carried out without any injurious consequences to the country or the administration. If Dr. Pacheco strikes off 12 millions from his proposed budget for the ensuing year the figures, will stand so :—

Proposed Pacheco Budget..	39,473,877
Reduction.....	12,000,000
New Budget.....	27,473,877

Now we have not the slightest hesitation in stating that if Dr. Pacheco reduced his budget to 27½ millions, so beneficial would be the effect on the market that the premium on gold would drop to 25, and every private bank in the market would assist the Government to meet all its payments.

When President Roca entered office in 1880, the Budget was $19,095,498, and in less than 5 years it jumped up to $42,900,063. Such an unprecedented advance calls for some scrutiny, and without tiring our readers with too many figures, we think we may intructe on their notice a few items which will clearly establish that this gigantic increase is not due to our railways, public works or increased service of the public debt, but to the increased number of people living on the Budget, and on the public finances.

Let us proceed to facts; we now give the different items of the various departments of the administration, which have nothing to do with our public debt or our public works, but have everything to do with the extravagance which has landed us where we are to-day:

We might present to our readers many other items for reduction, such as the Police which should not figure at all in the Budget, nor any other charge for the city Government, since under a wise and economic and well-managed administration, the Contribucion Directa and Patente taxes of the city should cover every charge for the city Government, and leave besides a handsome surplus to the National Government; but we have fairly and honestly shewn our readers a list of reductions which Dr. Pacheco can most easily carry out for at least a year or so, in order to give the country breathing time. With these reductions to two Budgets stand so :—

Dr. Pacheco's Budget...	$39,433,877
Standard Budget.....	30,597,338

Let no one object to our taking the Budget items of 1877 as our bases, since although we all must admit the country is much richer and more populous now than then, still the premium on gold was never so high in our Bolsa in 1877, as it is to-day. Thus if the country is richer in one respect it is poorer in another, and what President Avellaneda effected then to bring round the country, surely President Roca can do now.

Reduce your Budget, Dr. Pacheco, to 30 millions, and all will be right. Everything will come round, and capital will flow back in millions to the country.

DR. VIOLA'S FUNERAL

On Tuesday the remains of this much-lamented gentleman were "laid for ever in their narrow cell." At 3 o'clock the residence of deceased was crowded with the leading men of the city, and hundreds had to remain in the street, as they could not get in. Congressmen, editors, judges, public officials, lawyers, merchants, and men of all classes were there. The coffin was of rosewood, with two lids, one of glass, with silver mountings. Such was the wealth of flowers sent by sorrowing friends, that a special carriage had to be hired to take them to the Recoleta. One of the wreaths, of laurel and forget-me-nots, had a piece of poetry attached.

The coffin was carried to the hearse by Dr. Enrique N. Viola, brother of deceased, Lino Basabe, brother-in-law; D. Ramon A. de Toledo, Mess. Harilaos, Araujo and other friends. Many walked beside the hearse the whole way to the cemetery. The band of the 1st Regiment marched behind the hearse, playing a dead march. The file of carriages, all full, was of unusual length; and the cortege did not reach the burial-ground till 5 p.m. The coffin was then placed in the vestibule, and President Roca pronounced the following :—

Gentlemen,

The generation to which Albert Navarro Viola belonged has lost, in his early death, one of its clearest, soundest and most cultivated minds; and his father a beloved son who was his pride. His young wife has lost the loving companion of her life; the country one on whom its hopes were fixed; Argentine literature one of its most promising votaries, while we who surround this bier have lost a loyal, frank, and loving friend.

If the disappearance from life's stage of an old man who has done his work in the world causes us regret and gives us food for pondering over the unknown depths of Nothing, filling us with mysterious awe, what must we feel when it is a young man in the morning of existence, exuding life from every pore, that falls back into dust as icy Death lays its hand on his noble brow! It seems a contravention of the laws of Nature, a want of logic in the order of created things; and for this very reason the survivors become more easily consoled beside the open tomb of one who had a right to long years on the face of the earth.

Albert Navarro Vicia was, as I have said, a bright hope for the country; and all those who knew him well, and observed his tenacious character, his love of work, his avidity to learn, his constant activity which scorned repose, his wonderful rapidity of both conception and execution, his winning manners, his gay spirit, like those phosphorescent beings that leave a luminous track behind them; all who knew him and met him in daily life know full well that in speaking of him as I do, I use no mere conventional and routine words over his grave, but speak from profound and sincere conviction.

Is there any intellectual work that Navarro Viola has not done? Without being a poet, he has left, with other more useful work, books of good verses that are perused with pleasure. His talent was eminently practical, the talent of a man born for action, and who displayed during his rapid illness and on his death bed, the energy and steel-like temper of his soul. Up to the last moment he retained his full senses; and he quailed not as he saw Death creeping towards him moment by moment, at the age when the flowers of life are fairest and its horizon glows with roseate and purple hues.

Each time that I called at his house to enquire for him, I found it full of young men like himself, lawyers, doctors, of all professions, without distinction of political parties, who were day and night watching him with loving care. And last night when I entered the room where his corpse lay, to take a last farewell, I saw most touching scenes. There, beside his ashes hardly cold, were Piñero, Udaondo, physicians, and many other friends and companions, all mute, as if petrified by grief, some sobbing aloud; others dropping silent tears, the purest and greatest homage that can be paid to the loved ones departed. Never, gentlemen, have I seen so many men in the full vigour of life shed such bitter and sincere tears.

In presence of this touching scene I said to myself that such deep grief for him must be due to that secret talisman of character, that inexplicable attraction, due to his gifted mind, which a man sometimes has for the other men of his own circle, his class, or his times. Albert had much of the stuff of a leader in him; the stuff that raises a man above the multitude and attracts the public gaze.

I lose in him not only a true friend and discreet secretary, in whom I had unlimited confidence, but a future witness of the motives for many of my public acts as ruler.

Gentlemen.

As we lay the mortal remains of Albert Navarro Viola in these sacred precincts, let us console ourselves with the thought that Death is nothing more than perfect and infinite rest after the incessant labour of Life."

The Manager of the Cosmopolitan Society then spoke. He was followed by Dr. Araujo Muñoz who read a piece of poetry by Mr. Eduardo Saenz; and several others also delivered short orations.

It was 6 p.m., as the coffin was laid in the vault of the Olazarri family, and the vast concourse slowly and sadly retired.

The La Plata's Mails.

London, July 9.

In the House of Commons, yesterday, replying to Sir G. Campbell, Lord George Hamilton explained the circumstances under which Hobart Pasha had been restored to the retired list of the Royal Navy. The Navy Estimates were further considered in Committee of Supply, and were all disposed of. The East India Loan (£10,000,000) Bill was read a third time.

A brief meeting of the Cabinet was held at the House of Commons yesterday.

The 2nd Battalion Scots Guards will leave Alexandria to-day for Cyprus on board the City of Oxford.

It is stated in St. Petersburg that Sir Edward Thornton, the British Ambassador, will shortly quit the Russian capital.

On Tuesday 1,109 fresh cases of cholera and 628 deaths from that epidemic occurred in Spain.

To-day the British and Ottoman delegates will sign the various documents connected with the new Customs' tariff agreed upon between England and Turkey.

Prince Alexander of Bulgaria left Sofia on Tuesday last for England, via Darmstadt, to attend the wedding of Princess Beatrice and his brother, Prince Henry of Battenberg.

Lady Carnarvon, in driving through the streets of Dublin yesterday without the usual military escort, was loyally saluted by the people.

County Down election took place yesterday, and the result of the polling will be announced this afternoon.

Aylesbury nomination is fixed for Monday next, and the polling for the following Thursday.

Mr. John Morley, M.P., at a meeting in Whitechapel last night, characterised as a miraculous conversion the change of attitude of the Conservative party in regard to exceptional legislation for Ireland. It was unexampled in the annals of political profligacy.

It was resolved last night by the Brighton Liberals not to oppose the re-election of Mr. Marriott.

Yesterday the House of Lords' Committee for Privileges resumed the hearing of the Lauderdale peerage case.

Lady Margaret Graham yesterday performed the ceremony of formally opening the ornamental enclosure of Northampton-square, Goswell-road.

Mr. Mundella, M.P., speaking at Sheffield last night, predicted that though the Liberals had been defeated by liquor and land, the reverse would be but temporary.

Early yesterday morning the premises of Messrs. B. Young and Co., glue and size makers, and Messrs. Powell and Son, leather dressers, Spa-road, Bermondsey, were almost totally destroyed by fire, the total loss being estimated at from £30,000 or £40,000. By a fire in the City-road last night a child lost its life.

Holloway and Chalke, the two young men who pleaded guilty of committing a series of dynamite outrages in Wilts and Hants, have been sentenced respectively to twelve and two months' imprisonment It was stated that these crimes were committed out of "sheer wanton wickedness."

Eleven newsboys were yesterday charged at the Mansion House before the Lord Mayor with causing an obstruction in the City, and evidence having been given that they were engaged in selling an evening newspaper which was alleged to contain indecent literature his lordship remanded them for a week. The City Solicitor prosecuted.

At the Stock Exchange, yesterday, the tendency, on the whole, was unfavourable. In Home Railways, business was chiefly confined to Metropolitan, which fluctuated between 105½ and 108¾, and closed at 107¾, being ¾ up on the day. The dividend was announced at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. Some of the American railroads receded, but Ohio and Mississippi Preference rose 3½. Canadian and Mexican lines showed dulness, as well as Foreign bonds.

THE AFGHAN QUESTION.

Paris, July 8th.

Lord Salisbury's statement on the Afghan question exactly agrees with the information which reaches me from Russia as to the negotiations. The Russian Government considers the question as definitely settled, and at this moment no serious politician in Russia is any longer busied with it. Moreover, it is now known that from the commencement an interruption of peace was never seriously threatened, and that even when Mr. Gladstone delivered his famous speech, the Emperor and M. de Giers were soon enlightened as to the real sentiments of the speaker, who had chiefly in view the satisfaction of public opinion in England and not the display of an aggressive attitude towards Russia.

It was noticed at the time that this speech, though an apparent challenge to Russia, did not produce the outburst of Russian anger which might have been expected. The reason was that, on the one hand, Mr. Gladstone had made concessions, while, on the other, the Emperor had promptly perceived what was thought of this war by Prince Bismarck. Now, as soon as he had discovered this, the Emperor of Russia never ceased to repeat, "It is Prince Bismarck who desires that we should go to war with England. It is, therefore, a danger which must be avoided, for the Prince cannot be asked either to serve our interests or to prevent our acting against them." And from that time he never for one moment abandoned his firm resolution to avoid war if possible.

In this aim he was sincerely supported by M. de Giers, who would remark, "Prince Gortchakoff was driven to war because he pretended to wish it, but without preparing for it. For my own part, I sincerely declare that I do not wish it, but I prepare for it." The result has shown that M. de Giers had come to a sound conclusion, and in Russia every one believes the affair to be at an end. Princes and Ministers are almost all taking their holidays, while awaiting without misgivings the time when Lord Salisbury shall re-open the negotiations and bring them to a satisfactory issue.

It is perfectly well known that something resembling a concession must be granted to the Salisbury Cabinet, for as that Cabinet is the friend of other European Governments, Russia must treat it, apparently at least, better than she did its predecessor. She will then certainly give Lord Salisbury the famous Pass of Zulfikar, and will give it him all the more readily because in the new map which M. Lessar is preparing of the Afghan frontier this pass does not appear among the claims of the Russians, who confine themselves to a claim in favor of the Turcomans, of the pastures that border the passes with the salt lake draining them. M. de Giers said some time ago, in reference to the mission of M. Lessar, and alluding to the fact that M. de Staal cannot speak English, "I thought I had sent to London a mere dictionary, but I have found with pleasure that I have sent there a man of talent." In fact, according to the Russians, M. Lessar has facilitated the negotiations by substituting for strategic demands claims of a more practical and less warlike character, and by showing to the Government that it could make strategic concession without affecting its ulterior plans of commercial and maritime extension.

There is then no occasion to dwell on the difficulty occasionally pointed out by Lord Salisbury; and in his speech we should only see an able preliminary statement, to be followed by a comparative success when Russia gives up the pass promised to the Ameer.

But the most interesting and important result of the affair is its having shown Russia her Sovereign in a new light, altogether to his advantage. The Emperor, it need not now be concealed, passed in the eyes of his subjects and of Europe as a man of limited intelligence, incapable of statesmanship. Now the Afghan question has quite dispelled this mistake. People see and know that he has all along supported the pacific policy of his Chancellor, and this despite the constant pressure of the military party. M. de Giers had no need to tell him that Prince Bismarck was inciting him to war. The Emperor from his own observation had deduced the Prince's desire for war, and had patiently and coolly thwarted it, therein displaying statesmanlike qualities by no means suspected, and acquiring sensible prestige with the enlightened portion of the nation.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

July 8.

If the Rev. M. Loyson does not convert two thousand souls in a day to old Catholicism, he can induce that number to come and hear him lecture on the "Pantheon and its Cross." The Pantheon having been declared a secular edifice, the ex-Carmelite proposes that it be utilized as a monster Mechanics' Institute. He pleads, not to demolish the cross on the dome; let that remain as it is, the banner of humanity, but convert it into a flag-staff for the tricolor. A few of the spectators had solutions of their own; one proposed to convert it into a weather-cock, a second to hang the priests from it, a third to nail Jules Ferry thereon. M. Loyson retorted that the cross was synonymous with Liberty, and the worthy ornament of a patriotic temple. France, he said, was now in her sixth period of transformation, which dated from 1789, and that the Pantheon implied a religion. The service (continued the eloquent orator) ought to consist of a daily prayer, that composed by General Hoche: "Oh, God! extirpate the factions from the bosom of the Republic." Before any person be inhumed in the Pantheon, M. Loyson suggests that the dead ought to be judged, following the practice of the ancient Egyptians. This might obviate the ejection of their remains later—an accident that befel Mirabeau's, Marat's, Rousseau's, and Voltaire's, But where find the Rhadamanthuses — wherefrom select the jurors? There is Admiral Courbet; the Opportunists or Ferryists, in place of the Pantheon would not be displeased to see his remains lie in full fathoms five, for his letters have killed that party.

M. Bernard, Deputy, has drawn attention to the decadence of the population of France, and, strange to say, the Chamber listened to him for five minutes. But it did not vote his perfect cure, that of the State creating sizarships for the son of a family of seven children. A good one hundred years ago, Arthur Young exclaimed that France was over-peopled, and that she would be more prosperous with only five millions of inhabitants. He suggested, too, that the French Parliament be sent over to England to witness her material prosperity. We have changed all that. The chief cause of the decline in the population of France is the abolition of the law of primogeniture, which ensures each child its pro tanto share of the paternal goods, and thus removes all stimulus for sons to seek their fortune, say in colonies. Then a father and mother desire material comforts. How could a life at the club, play, a weekly gala dinner, balls, theatres and society be kept up were French parents to have as many children as an English curate or a civil servant? A Frenchman aged 30, and his wife 22, will have two children, but never will that mystic number be exceeded. How could parents move in society and bring up seven children, giving the boys a position and the girls a fortune? Is a mother with an only son, that will hardly allow him to risk a voyage to St. Cloud, likely to allow him to go to Tonkin, Senegal or the Congo? Allons donc! That's why France will never have colonies. She will never be able to create a Melbourne, a Sydney, an Adelaide, or a Brisbane—to say nothing of a Dunedin, Auckland, or a Durban. The proposition to create Professors of Colonization is then on a par with Hugo's scheme of a European Republic. Name Jules Ferry, de Brazza, or Jules Verne to such chairs.

The phylloxera first appeared in France in 1865, in the department of the Gard. The ephemeral train, has well toiled on, since it has laid desolate the whole South of France, where there was but comfort and prosperity. The government expends 1½ million frs. yearly, to combat the bugs. In 1884, there were 1,661,000 acres of vineyards destroyed by the scourge in France, out of a total of 5½ millions acres. In 1874, the country produced nearly 14 millions gallons of wine, now not more than half this quantity. She exports annually, 550,000 gallons.

Worth is the president of the society of mantua makers of Paris. It is from his workshop that proceed all the marvels of luxury in the way of dress. Husbands and fathers remember the shop, by the little bills run up by daughters and wives. He is in hot water, this Prince of Mantalinis; he issued, in his official capacity, a Black List of clients to be avoided they were divided into three categories: A—rogues, swindlers, and Jeremy Diddlers: B—people living beyond their means, keeping up a dash: C—persons who can pay, but will not, till the baliff presents the account. These several categories include the names of the "créme de la créme," in all countries; there are ex-sovereigns, duchesses of high and low degree, ambassadresses, marchionesses, and similar blue bloods. Copies of the Black List were sent to some journals, and are being hawked about from hand to hand. Imagine a descendant of the Crusaders being classed by a male-dress maker, as a rogue and a swindler. If the fair sex can lay hold of Worth, they will brain him with their fans.

M. Grévy is working off his arrears of petitions from the twenty men now lying under sentence of death in all France. Gagny, the most atrocious miscreant ever confined in a condemned cell, has been executed at Troyes. The culprit, livid, was a living dead man on reaching the scaffold. Diebler allowed the head to remain half a minute too long in the bull's eye, before touching the spring which sets free the falling knife. When all was over the body would not fit in the coffin, so crowd broke through, and had a good look. Ten minutes after it was dissected; the blood of a newly killed dog was injected, when the eyes and jaws moved, and the heart commenced to re-throb.

The schools of anatomy are now supplied with "artificial skulls"—they are superior for lecturing purposes.

Professor Jaeger has been prohibited dealing in capillary pills. He was the advocate of the doctrine that the more wool, in its natural state, we wore, the more we would escape disease. He went further; each person, he held, gave off health and good temperament, in a word character, by the hair; he professed to catch this perfume, bottle it, and so sold it. The authorities found the bottle contained only water. People not the less assert, that water mixed to form a pill, worked wonders. Faith, as ever saves.

English as she is spoke; "Cherry Gobler," is advertised; and "Lady" Dudley is announced as having been acquitted on the grounds of insanity, of the murder of O'D. Rossa in the United States.

Voters to their deputy: "but during the last four years, your name never appeared among the speakers in the Chamber, not even a hear! hear!" My friends, I acted on the precept "Silence is golden"—Well Monsieur, as you must have made your fortune so, we will allow you to enjoy it—in private life."

Of a matrimonal agency; client examining five photos of old frights: "I assure you our agency is established since forty years"—"Why then do you show me the photos of your original clients?"

We have rarely seen so many 'hurtos,' 'robos,' 'penetraciones,' etc. in the papers as filled our colleagues' columns yesterday. For its size, Buenos Aires has an immense proportion of thieves in its population.

THE BOCA RAILWAY.

Dear STANDARD.

Once more it is my duty, not without reason, to complain of the erratic passenger time service on the Boca and Ensenada Railway. The last time I complained, 'por el bien publico,' was on the question of travelling to town at 6 a.m. on a cold winter's morning in pitch darkness. This, per Mr. Munro's kind attention, has been looked into, and a light has since been provided. Now the complaint lies with the train timed to leave Central for Boca and Barracas at 6.10 p.m., which often leaves at 6.40 and 6.45 p.m., and certainly never at the hour specified in the time table.

On Monday night, after being shunted about from one end of the station to the other, we finally got under way at 6.40 p.m.; just half an hour late.

Last night, after the same process, we left at 6.45 p.m., and Heaven knows at what o'clock we shall leave to-night.

As a rule the fault lies with the 'up Ensenada train,' timed to arrive in Central at 6 5 p.m., which invariably arrives late.

From General Brown to Central, said train is only allowed 11 minutes, which is not enough; taking into consideration that at Venezuela station there are about 150 milk-cans to be delivered, hence the detention.

By despatching from Ensenada at 3.10 p.m., and crossing the 'down' La Plata and Ensenada train in Quilmes at 5 p.m., and then catching the train for town from Barracas al Norte at the "empalme" junction at 5.30 p.m., all this would be obviated, and there would be a decided saving in coal, as one engine would only be required.

It seems to me a pity, and certainly "infra dig," that complaints are so numerous on this line, when by a little foresight everything could be satisfactorily arranged.

Either have the affair properly looked into, or in default, mark with a heading to certain Boca trains, 'saldrá cuando puede!"

Between Central and General Brown there is no communication after 7 p.m., which gives the tramway a chance of making a fair per centage during these hours. In Mr. Simpson's and Crabtree's time it was not so; we then had a nightly train at 10.15 p.m., and why should it not be now? The same facilities are offered. There is a train arriving every night from La Plata at 10.10 p.m. The engine goes back "light." Would it not greatly benefit the Company to have that engine take down a coach, receiving passengers at Central Station? The cost would be no more.

Ninety-nine in a hundred passengers would prefer going by rail, than be forced to go for a cold, forty minutes ride in an open tram car.

Yours truly,

The Great Unwashed.

MAYNOOTH COLLEGE.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

In reply to a paragraph in an article "From Our Brother Editor" which appeared in your issue of the 31st instant, stating that His Grace The Duke of Leinster had evicted Maynooth College from The College Farm, on account of the Rev. Dr. Walsh not signing the "Leinster Lease," so 'contracting the holder out of the Land Act,' allow me through the medium of your columns to correct such a statement, as such was not the case.

The Duke of Leinster wished all his tenants to sign the 'Leinster Lease' but some holders refused to do so, amongst others Maynooth College. Under those conditions the latter was evicted. This, allow me to state, was done before the Land Act came into force and not afterwards.

After "The Land Act of Ireland" was passed, His Grace abolished the said 'Leinster Lease' and threw all his tenants on the merits of The Bill. Not only did he do this, but he sent, at his own expense, valuators to revaluate all his estate, and if under those conditions the tenants were not satisfied with the revaluation, then they could appeal to the "Land Courts," and I am very happy to state that only one tenant was the exception to the general satisfaction exhibited by the land-holders under the Duke of Leinster.

By one who was present at the time.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The La Plata's mails bring the Pall Mall Gazettes with the sensational articles about London vice, which caused such extraordinary excitement in London, last month. Our London correspondent devotes much attention to the subject, but owing to pressure on our columns we hold his letter over for our next.

We publish in our mail news a very extraordinary statement respecting the Czar, and the Afghan question, which we cut from the Times. It will be seen that when the Czar discovered that Bismarck was in favor of the war; he at once drew back and determined there should be no war. The revelation is extraordinary.

Tea, gentle Tea! Ambrosial Coffee! The "Great China," Mr. Scheiner's place in Calle Piedad is the spot where both are to be had in perpection, and, in spite of the gold premium, at very moderate prices. Everything, from Hams to Hammer's Beer, from Port to Pickles, and from Butter to Bordeaux, is to be had good and cheap in the "Great China" See advertizement.

With pleasure we announce that the wooden are triomphe, in the plaza Victoria, is at last down. It cost the citizens 13,000 Nats. to put up, and Heaven only knows how much to take down. No wonder that with such follies our exchequer should be out at elbows.

Dr. Beck, the physician of the German Hospital, has just won for himself fresh professional laurels, having performed one of the most difficult of surgical operations "cutting for the stone" on a patient 75 years of age; the stone extracted was 5 centimetres large, three wide and 2 thick, and we are happy to say that the patient Mr. Grumbein is going on so favorably after the operation, that we hope he will soon be completely recovered. We congratulate Dr. Beck, on his great professional victory.

Our esteemed senior El Nacional, the doyen of the Buenos Aires Press, which, like the oak, gathers fresh vigor and stammina with advancing years, finished to-day the heavy task of putting up its new Marinoni printing-press. We, who have recently emerged from the tribulations and vicissitudes of a similar job, with the unshaken conviction that we can compete with the best mechanic in town, can fully appreciate the satisfaction of our colleague, after fitting a press that cost 16,000$ m/n., throws off 8 copies with every revolution, and prints 8000 copies per hour. We congratulate the Nacional, and its subscribers especially, as the new press means half a dozen more columns to the paper and a new telegraphic service, combined with agencies and correspondents in all parts of the globe. Our colleague's new press is worth a visit, as it is the largest ever turned out of Marinoni's, and will enable the Nacional to appear in a sheet as large as that of the Nacion.

Public attention in the Plate is now so centred on the Budget and Dr. Pacheco, that even the ladies forget about the grand Bolsa ball which is to come off on the 14th inst. Tickets 15 Nats, and over 3000 sent out.

The meeting and procession of the Society for protection to animals' took place at the appointed time, in Calle Callao between Lavalle and Tucuman, in front of the Salvador College. The members started in carriages for Calle Santa Fé, thence the procession proceeded to Retiro, down Calle Florida, all the pretty girls in the street saluting General Sarmiento, the President of the Society, and finally to the Government House and Cabildo. At the Policia Mr. Sarmiento made a good speech, and saluted Colonel Bosch Chief of Police. The procession then and there dissolved, and the members retired to the bosoms of their families.

Cañuelas is going ahead so fast that soon it will take the shine out of all the other country towns. The new railway has put new life into this moth-eaten town, and now they have opened a branch of the Provincial Bank, with a local Board of Directors composed of Messrs Davel, Bustelo, and Alsguin; Mr Thomas Garcia, Manager, and Mariano Billinghurst, jr., Treasurer. We hope soon to have more subscribers in Cañuelas.

We never remember a time when the knife was more in the ascendant in this city than now. Almost every morning we read of frightful assaults. On Tuesday night two terrible affairs occurred in town, and both wounded men are dying. We think if President Roca applied as much energy to correct this fearful state of things as he did to restore order in Corrientes, he would place the citizens of Buenos Ayres under the greatest obligations to him. Some steps must be taken to stop the knife crimes in Buenos Ayres.

It appears a fact at last, that Sr. Ribes, who has just left for Europe, has sold all his steamers to the Platense Company for one million patacons gold, payable one-half cash, and one-half in shares of the new company, of which Ribes himself will be the manager. The company will have 22 steamers, and make trips daily. The fares will be at once raised to 8 Nats., which is bad news enough for our friends who think of making a trip this summer, with their children, to Pocitos. The Villa del Salto, Rio de la Plata and Silex give up the Uruguay route, and henceforward go on the Parana route up to Asuncion.

The cold was stunning yesterday morning. King Frost was supreme, and chattering teeth, red noses, and blue ears were the order of the day, at least of the morning. At Olavarria the Russian colonists are sliding and even skating on shallow pools, which are frozen two inches deep. They say in the South that it is the coldest winter on record.

The Pampa says it was Baring and his brothers of the Syndicate that got this country out of the loan scrape by imposing impossible terms! So it was. "No more foreign loans" is now the "ema" of every patriotic Argentine. "Argentina fura da se," just as Italy did. The Pampa gives a cheerful bird's eye sketch of the country's indebtedness "in posse" and "in esse"—254 millions; not a copper less. When Avellaneda went out it was 70 millions. We have been going just a little too fast.

The Senate is still wasting time over the Acevedo question, which is tantamount to shutting the stable door when the steed has gone. Our colleague is to be prosecuted in the Federal Court for libel or some other queer thing. We should say he will win in this case also.

The entrance to the grand Bolsa ball will be in Plaza Mayo so the "oi polloi" will have plenty of room to see the ladies going in. Men in nineteenth century evening dress are such guys that nobody looks at them either going in or going out. It appears that already there are some fashionable heartburnings about the great "hop." The Ladies' Committee announce that they will hear and decide all "reclamos" at 121 Calle Congallo.

Government has contracted for a telegraph line from Port Bermejo to Cangallo. Only 102 m/n per kilometre. Very cheap, indeed.

The Biblioteca Popular was rather well patronized during the first half of this year; 5790 readers. It is needless to say that translations of trashy French novels were most in demand.

There was a mild smash on the Western Railway the other morning during the fog. First up train ran into two waggons near Mercedes. The passengers howled with fright (the men worse than the women) but nobody was in the least hurt. River Plate railway travellers are extremely timid.

The swell mob are everywhere now. An Italian passenger by one of the river steamers was robbed the other day, during the run up from Montevideo, of a diamond ring which he says was worth 200 Nats (Lord knows if it was n't paste) The "damnificado" suspects the damnificator to be a man who slept in the same cabin as he did.

Here's some news for our cherished colleague Le Courrier. In May last Monsieur Pierre Morlo breathed his last in Empedrado Corrientes, at the ripe age of 90 years. He was a relic of the "Grande Armee" of Napoleon the Great; and many a time, in the 6th or Devil's Own Cuirassiers, did he follow Murat, Milhaud and Kellermann in the tremendous charges that so often decided the Great Captain's battles. Monsieur Merle was greatly liked and respected in Empedrado, where he had resided for many years.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The Italian theatrical papers say that the prices at the Colon Theatre would not have been so high this year but for the outrageous price Ferrari had to pay that much over-rated tenor Tamagno, and that the public here received the latter coldly in consequence. We hope it was so. Colon audiences have been making themselves supremely ridiculous for many years by their 'entusiasmo frenetico' for favourite artistes, and it is time they should learn some sense. A select few know very well that the artistes themselves despise the Colon high-life audiences as capricious and quite indifferent to real artistic merits, while, show, shouting and pretty faces are applauded 'con verdadero delirio.' This is nothing more than the fact.

Professor Pietet, of Geneva, has produced a wonderful chemical liquid that is equal to anything, from thawing the Arctic Ocean to making a 'pucherо' of the Sun, and the Sun's cousin, the Emperor of China. Our scientific lore does not enable us to give any further explanation of this wonderful liquid; but we recommend it to the favourable consideration of the Industrial Club, which will, no doubt, be able to knock a new 'home industry' out of it.

We hear the Adesson preserved beef spoken of as a rival to the Costa article. We know nothing about either, except that, like everything else in the Plate, both are spoken of as 'de primer orden.' Of course! But we wouldn't touch any preserved meat even with a toothpick—except Argentine frozen mutton.

In San Lorenzo Hospital the other day a man nurse found a patient apparently dead in his bed at early morn. The corpse was about to be removed to the dead-house, when up it started, exclaiming 'What the d—l are you doing? I'm not dead yet, give me some whisky and water!' He got the two ws, and is now on the high road to recovery.

Here's a hint for our slow-coach telephone companies. Personally, we hope they won't take it, as there is ever so much too much telephonic talk going on already:—"There has just been introduced in Paris a new system of telephone communication. The company issue tickets at five cents each. These tickets may be presented at any of the Paris Post Offices, and entitle the owner to hold five minutes' conversation with persons in any other post office or at any of the telephone company's stations. The telephone company offers, at the same rate, conversations at any of their eleven stations with persons at any other station or at the residence of any of their subscribers. For securing prompt medical assistance in cases of accident in the public streets, telephonic communication between the druggists and the hospitals in various quarters of the city is about to be established. By this means the nature of the accident and of the remedies or assistance required for its relief can at once be indicated."

A poor Italian who can neither read nor write was swindled out of a fifth of the big prize in the San Luis Lottery the other day by the owner of an 'Agencia' and two other rascals. The police have caught the trio; but the money is gone, the 'agente' having taken good care to bone it the morning after the drawing. There is such a crew in the Lottery business now that it is not safe to buy tickets or rely on the Extracts anywhere except in Agencias of known standing.

There was a 'fito' in a Lottery office in Calle San Martin near the Provincial Bank on Tuesday, and the owner of the place, a man named Irigoyen, drew a knife and attacked a customer, all about some wretched small prize. The idea that Lottery agents in the very heart of this 'ciudad culta' should deem it necessary to carry knives makes one rather nervous about entering any of their offices.

The Ejercito Argentina reports another instance of the reckless extravagance that is bone of the bone and flesh of the flesh of this country. An old Invalido, half starved and in rags while alive, was buried last week at the expense of the State. There was a grand hearse, mourning coaches and a rosewood coffin. When the Chacarita was reached, the grand coffin was pitched into the common pit, and there was an end of it!!!

Colonel Host's new map of the Chaco will soon be published. We hear it is grand.

The Latham Company continues to attract the attention of Rosarians, and we see by the Capital that our Dan is to receive a handsome present on the occasion of his benefit, which is to come off with Shakespeare's "Othello." The Company will be among us about the 13th inst for the special performance which is being organised as a farewell benefit to Mr Latham who leaves for Europe shortly after. We hope he will speedily recover the purse weight he has lost in his present unfortunate though honorable and praiseworthy venture.

A rousing fire is reported from Autofogasta. Two whole 'manzanas' gone to blazes. We must do West Coast fires the justice to say that they are always on a respectable scale, and not the nimminy-pimminy affairs we have here, when we all go into convulsions, and the whole Fire-Brigade are goldmedalled, for their heroism at some miserable flicker in a furniture store or tailor's shop. On Monday Don Tobino's cake-shop in Plaza Lavalle made a miserable attempt at a fire, but a couple of jugs of water put an end to it. Don Toby got a prodigious fright, however.

How Girlsmay Please.—Every young girl cannot be beautiful, but everyone may be attractive. Indeed, health and cleanliness go far to giving those bright eyes, blooming cheeks, and clear skins which conduce to good looks. Though some have plain and irregular features, let them comfort themselves by the thought that they may make very beautiful old ladies if they cultivate sweetness of disposition and contentedness of mind.

ROSSETTER'S HAIR RESTORER

This preparation, which is rapidly superseding the dangerous and poisonous compounds hitherto used as applications for the Hair, has been highly recommended by the Medical Faculty, on account of its harmless nature and gradual but invariably efficacy.

It differs from all other articles which have been hitherto offered in not being a dye to bring all heads of Hair to one uniform colour.

ROSSETTER'S Hair Restorer

Absolutely Reproduces the Original Colour of THE HAIR

WHATEVER THAT MAY HAVE BEEN WHETHER AUBURN, CHESNUT, BROWN, OR JET BLACK.

It possesses, moreover, the property of removing Dandriff and other impurities from the Head, and prevents the Hair from falling off. Although it contains no oil, it imparts to the Hair the peculiar lustre and hue of youth, promoting and strengthening its growth.

The sale of this remarkable preparation is increasing rapidly, and it only requires to be known to be extensively used.

Segundo Remate

DE

20 Sobresalientes Moruecos

Rambouillet Argentino

Producidos de la Cabaña

Las Acacias

Propiedad de los Sres.

Eduardo Olivera y Hnos

En nuestra casa

78—ALSINA—78

El Martes 11 de Agosto 1885

A las 2 p.m.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado procedente de la afamada Cabaña Las Acacias.

20 esplendidos carneros Rambouillet Argentino, animales del mas puro origen.

Cuando ha llegado a fuerza de largos años de estudios y grandes sacrificios pecuniarios a producir el verdadero carnero Rambouillet Argentino, que puede decirse es el ideal y perfeccion del tipo de los Rambouillet, creemos innecesario estendernos sobre la bondad de estos moruecos, tanto mas que son tan universalmente conocidos en ambas margenes del Plata, por los innumerables criadores y estancieros que los han adquirido.

Unicamente prevenimos a nuestra clientela, que los animales de este año son tal vez superiores y sino iguales a los de los ultimos años.

El segundo lote numerado del 21 al 40 podra verse ya, en la cabaña y en nuestra casa calle Alsina 78, 4 dias antes del remate.

20 notables carneros sangre pura Rambouillet, animales especiales por su tamaño y por la finura y tupidez de su vellon, pues hemos tenido ocasion de examinar los animales en la misma cabaña, y podemos recomendarlos a los señores estancieros, no obstante de que el establecimiento goza hace muchos años de fama con respecto a sus productos.

Debemos prevenir a los señores que han comprado de este establecimiento, que este año no daran mas que dos remates de carneros Rambouillet por haber querido presentar unicamente animales muy superiores.

El primer lote estara en nuestra casa Alsina 78 cuatro dias antes del remate para que los puedan examinar los interesados.

ON 'CHANGE.

August 5th, 1885

Gold ..... 39 o/o prem.
Cedulas F 79½

The gold speculation wears the heavy aspect that is generally the precursor of a fall in the market, but the bulls manage to keep up the price of the premium with success. There is, however, a falling tenden y in the situation, and the current of the market is leaping into a bearish channel. The Bolsa appears to be operating for a rise, but the strong outside elements are selling freely. The price of gold now entirely depends on the speculative elements at the ring, and the probabilities are that the outside elements will carry the day.

It would be a lengthy and idle task to discuss whether the premium is too high or too low at present quotations, but it is evident that the rise in the market is produced by the uncertainty of the situation and that the principal lever of the bulls is the threatened issue of more paper money. The majority of operators in the market are in favor of a fall, but in the present unsettled state of affairs the bulls are able to hold their ground, and influence the speculation with alarming reports as to the future conduct of the Government.

It is ridiculous to suppose that the National Government has any serious intention of increasing the issue of paper money. The revenue of the Government is in paper, and any fresh issue of paper would bring about a depreciation that would defeat the purposes of the Government. The great object of the Government must necessarily be to improve the value of the currency, and nothing could be more impolitic than any measure that might increase the discount in paper, and thereby the revenue of the executive. In fact, the increase in the issue of the currency is quite out of the question.

The Minister of Finance is busily engaged drawing up the financial bill to help the Treasury out of its present straitened circumstances. In all probability, Dr Pacheco will propose to Congress a large Home loan. Some parties on 'Change are in favor of a stock bearing 8 o/o, but this is rather high interest. A 7 o/o stock could be launched on the market at 7 o/o with facility at 90 o/o and over, since Hard Dollar Bonds are in demand at par and they are only a 6 o/o stock. Another circumstance in favor of the Home Loan at 7 o/o is, that as fast as the stock is issued it will be remitted to London to join the Hard Dollar and favorite Treasury Bill. London capitalists have yet sufficient confidence in the Argentine Republic to take its internal bonds, and shareholders never did a better business than when they held their depreciated stock, and bought more, in the 1876 crisis.

Operations in gold for cash this morning embraced 144,000$; the market opened at 38½, rose to 39.20, and closed at 39. A few thousand were sold for the 8th at the same rates. Half a million was sold for the end of the month; the market opened at 39, fell to 38, and closed at the opening rate. Two hundred thousand were sold for the end of September at 37 to 38. Operations during official hours did not amount to a million dollars. The speculation is becoming dull.

Stocks and shares were neglected to-day. A small operation was effected in Series F at 79½ for cash. The exchange market is at a standetill, but rates are firm. Drawers ask 46⅜d., but there are no takers. None of the banks are taking, and drawers will be obliged to make concessions. The money market continues easy for paper, but there is still scarcity of gold. Government bills are placed at 8 o/o, but with some difficulty.

Messrs. Bullrich & Co held a great ram auction yesterday. Thirty Rambouillets from Mr. Olivera's great "cabaña" were sold at an average price of 5,423 m/c each. The best ram of the lot was bought by Mr. Osvaldo Rocha for 13,300 m/c. Twenty rams of Messrs Ocampo Bros were sold at an average price of 4,150 m/c per head. The mart was crowded with sheepfarmers, and bidding was brisk.

The fine Pacific steamer Cotopaxi will leave on the 7th inst. for Europe. The R.M.S. La Plata has arrived from Southampton with 32 passengers. The German steamer Rosario, from Hamburg, arrived also. The national transport Villarino is back, at her old place in the Boca, after a lengthy cruise South. She did not bring as many Indians as had been announced. Lieut. Colonel Spurr, her commander, has had a lengthy trip this time. He met with stiff gales and heavy seas south of the Rio Negro.

The Rojas Patron quinta behind the Flores Road, to the south, was bought by Mr. L. Billinghurst for 23,000 m/n. This quinta embraces 10 squares of land.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

The La Plata Senate has appointed Mr. Rudolph Heimendahl member of the Board of the Provincial Bank. This is a valuable contingent to the Bank and a distinction that Mr Heimendahl deserves.

The British barque Wayfarer, from New Port, arrived yesterday in Bahia Blanca, after a voyage of 105 days.

The exchange committee of the Provincial Bank met to-day to fix the drawing rate for next mail. The rate, it is said, will be proportionate to a gold premium of 40 o/o. This ought to put up gold. The Board of the National Bank has arrived at no decision yet.

Mr Ristorini sold to-day 9000 square yards of land, situated in Calles Defensa and Australia, at the rate of 2$50 per vara.

The great news of the day is the sale of 24 leagues of land in the North of Santa Fé, effected by the well-known land broker Mr J M Benitez. This splendid property may be seen on Chapeaurouge's map under the name of Messrs Grigg, Gras and Rodriguez, who owned the property three years ago. Messrs Severano, Rodriguez and Coll bought the estate to-day from Messrs Irigoyen, Rodriguez and Pujato for 2o4,000 $m/n, at the rate of 8,500$ m/n per league. We remember the time, about five years ago, when this property was sold at 2000 $m/n per league, and the sellers were glad to get rid of it, as it was situated beyond the Urquiza land, near the province of Santiago and the Chaco territory. Three years ago part of it was sold with great difficulty at 5000$m/n per league, and to-day we may say that it has been thrown away at 8,500. Before the end of the year investors will not find a league of land in Santa Fé under 10,000$m/n, and the land-owners who are now selling under that price are making a great mistake. We hear that Mr Benitez has sold another large property in the North of Santa Fé for the same price, but the transaction is kept under reserve for the moment. We congratulate the buyers, as before another year the railway will pass in close proximity to their splendid property.

We hear from La Plata that a new stock has been created out there, called 'Bonos de Edificacion'; 2 millions nats have been issued and all placed, and the applications for these bonds have been so numerous, that the committee, having charge of the business, is about to apply to the legislation to authorize the issue of another million, so as to satisfy all the applicants for these bonds The Bank is authorized to advance one million nats on these bonds, which appear to us to assume the character of Cedulas, and as the bank has already advanced a million on them, Mr Grasel, the gerente, has applied to the head board here for permission to continue making advances on them. These bonds, we hear, contribute greatly towards the building of new houses in La Plata.

There is great news stirring in the market about the Provincial Bank 'Bono General'; Minister Enciso is in town for the last two days about the business which, we believe, is in a fair way of being finally arranged.

The National Minister of Hacienda ordered yesterday the payment of 10,000 nats, to the Jockey Club. There is corn still left in Egypt.

A motion is about to be brought before the Camara Syndical, prohibiting Congress Deputies from being brokers.

Messrs Tallaferro & Sanchez held a great ram auction to-day. They sold 25 Rambouillet rams from Messrs Pellegrini & Lagos's fine "cabaña" as follows:—

The gold market ruled dull this evening. A few hundred thousand were sold at 38½ to 39. The market closed with sellers at 39 for the end of the month.

We extract from Messrs. Stuart, Williams & Co.'s important shipping list from Montevideo, under date July 1st to Aug. 1st, 1885, the following:—

Charters effected since July 1st—
Buckworth to load stones in Montevideo to B. Ayres at $2.25
Alagonda do bone-ash in Montevideo to Channel at 16s
Claudine do hides in Paysandu to Channel, £405.
O C Hornung do maté in Antonina to Montevideo, 1 real.
Maria do flour in Montevideo to Janeiro, £100
Elegant do hides in Villa Colon to Channel, £340
Gesina do beef in Montevideo to Bahia, 2,000 reis.
Tremont do general cargo in Montevideo to New York, $1,800
Giltner do linseed in Montevideo to Hull.
Rshrise do farifia in Sta. Catalina to Montevideo, 500 reis.
Vessels in distress in port—
Brit. bgt. Blanco stranded; repaired and now awaiting orders.
Ital. barque Veloce, reported before as having put in here leaking, will now be repaired. Her cargo has been sent forward by barque Giltner.
Brit. bkt. City of Charlottetown, reported before as putting in here leaking, has been condemned by the surveyors as irreparable.
Brit. steamer Gainford still on shore at Castillos Grandes.
Brit. barque E D Bigelow went ashore on the English Bank on the 7th during a gale and became a total loss. Crew left in boats and were picked up next day near Maldonado by steamer Para. Several articles saved by steamers and lighters have been sold here by public auction together with the wreck, which latter fetched $5.
Brit. barque Windsor Castle from Falkland Islands in dry dock repairing.

Freight Report—
Rates of freight for all parts still remain very dull, and no improvement can be reported during the past month. Nor is it likely that there will be any till the commencement of next shipping season say in November, as though the arrivals of outside steamers have fallen off, the regular liners are more than sufficient to carry the cargo offering.
The rates ruling may be quoted at 12½ fos. per cubic metre for Antwerp, Havre and Dunkirk, and 25 fcs. from the Parana and 20 fcs. from B. Ayres per ton for grain.
As will be seen by the list of charters effected by sailing vessels the rates for them also remain about stationary.
Messrs. Stuart, Williams & Co. give the following interesting statement of rules and portcharges about Montevideo, which we recommend commanders of vessels to cut out and keep in their cabins:—
Port of Montevideo.
Port charges—
Sea pilotage is not compulsory, but vessels taking a pilot should make a written agreement otherwise they will have to pay a tariff at the rate of $5 per Spanish foot.
Harbor pilotage is compulsory on sailing vessels moving into the inner harbor—$11.50 inwards, $10 outwards, $5 shifting berths.
Pilotage from Montevideo to Buenos Ayres for sailing vessels $30-50 For Rosario or Paysandu $60-100. For steamers from Montevideo to B. Ayres and back $100-130 From Montevideo to B. Ayres and Rosario and back to Montevideo $230-250, according to agreement.
Harbor dues 10 cts. per ton reg. Steamers taking a "packet privilege" are exempt, but pay $90 per trip for this privilege.—(N.B. Application must be made to the President of the Republic several days before the arrival of a steamer on her first voyage for this packet privilege, the petition costs $20, but once obtained stands good for ever).
Light dues 2½ cts. per ton reg., and 2 cts. per ton reg. extra on vessels proceeding to B. Ayres or the rivers.
Custom House charges. Opening and closing register to discharge and manifest for vessels under 200 tons reg. $24, 200 to 500 tons reg. $45, 500 tons reg. and upwards $60. Notaries $4.80. Bill of Health $5.60. Stamps for petitions and copies $4 to 5. Vessels loading outwards pay again the same charges.
Steamers having a "packet privilege" pay about $15 to 20 for stamps and $5.50 for bill of health on each clearance from the port.
Foreign Consuls charges for endorsing bills of health from $1 to 20.
Steam Tenders to attend on steamers in the open roads $6 to 8 per day, and $8 to enter or despatch a steamer with the port authorities.
Stevedores 20 to 25 cts. per ton loading or discharging.
Coasters. Any foreign vessel coasting in the River Plate has the same privilege as an Oriental vessel; viz, Custom House charges $4 to 6 per trip; Light dues 3 cts. per ton reg.
Lighterage. Loading or discharging is at the expense of shippers or consignees of cargo.
Navigation. To Rosario or Paysandu. Vessels drawing 16 to 17 feet can usually cross the bar at Martin Garcia, but may be detained for a day or two, when they exceed 16 feet.
The following Port Regulations are very important:—
That every ship on her arrival should hoist a yellow flag at the fore-top until she receives practique, otherwise she will be liable to a fine of $25 and detention in quarantine.
That any alterations in crew or passenger lists such as discharge, desertion, death, stow-a-way, &c. be entered in the official log to correspond with the bill of health under a penalty of three or more days' detention in quarantine.
